This is to inform you that the Army and Navy are

This award symbolizes your country's appreciation of the achievement of every man and woman in the Kankakee your plant, and a lapel pin which each civilian within it may wear as a sign of distinguished service to our country.

Honorable Robert P. Patterson
Under Secretary of War
War Department
Office of Under Secretary
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

This is to acknowledge your letter of November 28, 1942, informing the men and women of the Kankakee Ordnance Works that the Army and Navy are conferring upon them the Army-Navy Production Award for great accomplishment in the production of war equipment.

Writing in behalf of the men and women of this Works, I wish to thank you for this mark of appreciation. I am well aware of the attitude of our Plant Force toward the National Emergency, and if space and time permitted, could give you many heartening illustrations of this attitude, but feel that it is not necessary. I do know, however, that this award will afford to all receiving it a degree of encouragement which could hardly come from any other source, and which will stimulate them to even higher achievement in the War Effort.

Very truly yours,

Philip S. Cushing

The Meaning of The ARMY-NAVY "E"

In 1906 the Navy instituted in the Fleet an award for excellence, which has been known ever since as the Navy "E". First awarded for excellence in gunnery, this was later extended to include outstanding performance in engineering and communications. An honor not easily won nor lightly bestowed, it became and has remained a matter of deep pride to men of the Service who receive it.

When the rising tide of war in Europe placed a premium on the production of war equipment, the Navy "E" award was extended to embrace those plants and organizations which showed excellence in producing ships, weapons, and equipment for the Navy.

Then came Pearl Harbor—and with it a demand for war production such as the world has never known . . . an awareness that our fighting forces and the men and women of American industry are partners in the great struggle for human freedom . . . and on the part of all Americans a grim and enduring resolve to work and fight together until victory in that struggle is final and complete.

From that high resolve was born the Army-Navy Production Award which stands today as our fighting forces' joint recognition of exceptional performance on the production front . . . of the determined, persevering, unbeatable American spirit which can be satisfied only by achieving today what yesterday seemed impossible.
